Most modern homes are toxic money pits

Your home ought to be your temple, a sanctuary from the chaos of the world. It should be clean, healthy and designed for you, not the builder's bottom line.

You want a home where people want to touch your walls and walk barefoot on your floors.

We will get you there.

*"Talking with Max brought back many memories in me. It was like I was speaking with Mr. Wright again."
- Ron Salisbury 92 - Last living Canadian Apprentice of Frank Lloyd Wright*

*"Wow Max! I'm astonished to hear the first half of the interview with you. It was like watching the proverbial basketball player dunk over and over. I actually cheered. I'm completely blown away and very impressed."
Maxwell C. USA*

*"Just wanted to say thanks for the class and answering all my questions. I hope the last class went as well as the week I was there. I really enjoyed hanging out and being able to just absorb the whole process."
Jad D. Turneffe Atoll, Belize*
